NO. 200—SEVENTY-FIFTH YEAR

VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 2, 1933

SIXTEEN PAGES

LEGISLATURE OF B.C. IS DISSOLVED

Government Will Make Fight for Meal Tax Impost

Formal Appeal in Elliott Case Will Be Filed Today, With Collections of Tax to Continue, Attorney-General Pooley Announces—Hotelmen Planning Resistance

JOINING issue with F. C. Elliott, the Victoria barrister who took action against the British Columbia meal tax by refusal to pay the levy, the Provincial Government decided yesterday, to appeal the decision of Magistrate J. A. Findlay dismissing the tax action against Mr. Elliott. The tax, meanwhile, will continue to be collected, it was announced by Attorney-General Pooley. Formal notice of appeal will be filed by the Province today.

By deciding on the appeal and also on continuation of collection the Government definitely made up its mind to carry the fight in support of the Hospitals' Aid Act to the higher courts. Provincial counsel will argue that the tax is not akin to an excise impost, and is validly within the competence of the British Columbia Legislature.

After notice of appeal is filed, the right of the Province to consider the act still in force is established, and collections of the levy will continue unchanged, it was explained.

MAY OPPOSE TAX

Restaurant men, at least in Victoria, will probably utilize all their energies in supporting F. C. Elliott. This was the opinion of prominent restaurant owners in the city, when questioned regarding the matter yesterday afternoon.

For the time being nothing is being done, although several cafe owners were uncertain as to whether they should attempt to collect the tax in view of the decision of the Vancouver magistrate. A meeting of the restaurant owners of Victoria will be called shortly to decide their attitude, in the light of the Government's decision.

USE MIRROR TO SHOOT SLAYER

Machine Gun Ends Battle Between Hotel Clerk and Police

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 1 (AP).—After a spectacular forty-five minute machine-gun battle by police, George Perry, forty-three years old, former hotel clerk, was wounded fatally an hour and a half after he killed Samuel Murta, seventy-seven, wealthy proprietor of several low-priced hotels here.

The battle began when police went to Perry's room to question him in connection with Murta's death, as the two had been together the last time Murta was seen alive in the afternoon.

Upon finding Perry's room locked, but hearing someone inside, Police Sergeant Virgil Rawlings ordered the occupant out, but Perry's answer was a burst of four shots.

FIFTY AT SCENE

Although more than fifty policemen were summoned to the scene of the shooting, only ten or twelve took an active part.

Holding a mirror outside a window to get a view of Perry's room without exposing themselves unduly, the police located Perry's position, and Detective A. W. Bean, ended the battle by sending a volley of twenty-five machine gun bullets into the slayer. Perry died a short time after being taken to the city hospital.

Murta's body was found in the basement of the hotel, his throat slashed, apparently with a hacksaw. The reason for the killing of the elderly hotel owner was not immediately learned.

DROWNED WHILE DIVING

VANCOUVER, Aug. 1 (CP).—Richard Stewart, eighteen, of West Eighth Avenue, was drowned in English Bay early tonight while diving from a raft. Efforts of other bathers to rescue him were unavailing. The body was recovered.

COURT SENTENCE ENDS ROMANCE

Man Begs Meal, Wins Benefactor's Daughter and Stages Ladder Climb

STRATFORD, Ont., Aug. 1 (CP).—Ernest Leach, Hamilton, today was sentenced to three months in jail for vagrancy—and thus ended a young romance.

Two weeks ago Leach disappeared with the daughter of a St. Mary's woman, after eating an old-fashioned eel-potpie and ladder and all the mother of the girl trailed the pair through several Western Ontario cities and last night found them here.

From the story the mother told police it appeared Leach had called at the St. Mary's home to beg a meal. He "snuggled" into the bed, finally persuaded him to leave, but returned for his sweetheart, who made her escape via the ladder.

Camera Penetrates Veiling Mists

MOUNT Ranier, although approximately 140 miles distant from Victoria, is occasionally visible here on very clear days, but the above photograph of its snowy crest is probably the first ever taken from Victoria, being taken, on July 14, from the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory, Sanich, by F. S. Hogg and C. S. Beals, of the observatory staff. The picture has a double interest. The lens used was of thirty-nine-inch focal length recently supplied by Zeiss for use in one of the observatory's spectrographic cameras. To lessen the effect of atmospheric haze, a deep red filter was employed, and the negative was made on a panchromatic plate. In the foreground can be recognized, in the original picture, the Jubilee Hospital and a number of other Victoria and Oak Bay buildings.

Comes to Shore Alive After Ten Days Drifting in Gulf

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex., Aug. 1 (AP).—A story of being adrift in the Gulf of Mexico ten days, during which his only companion took his own life, was told here today, by Jack A. Davis, thirty-three, after he was rescued near Corpus Christi Pass.

Davis said he and William Wallace Bell were caught in a hurricane and their twenty-foot boat was wrecked. They were on their way from Kissimmee, Fla., to Honduras. Davis and Bell were without food and water except for shrimps and small fish they could gather from grass floating in the water.

Yesterday, Davis said, his companion cut his throat and jumped into the gulf. The craft finally sailed ashore and Davis was picked up by a coast guardsman.

Japan Planning Vast Navy and Army Expansion

Budget for Marine Defence Largest in Nation's History—U.S. Naval Programme Believed to Be Motivating Influence in Projected Increase in Fighting Power

TOKIO, Aug. 1 (AP).—Japanese army and navy chiefs, today, presented estimates for the 1934-35 defence expenditures, larger than any in previous history and 45 per cent greater than the appropriation for the current year.

The estimates, which were submitted to the Finance Ministry for inclusion in the Imperial budget now being drafted, included 180,000,000 yen ($50,400,000 at current exchange rates) for new naval construction, and 75,000,000 yen ($21,000,000) for modernization of capital ships.

FOR COMING YEAR
The Navy Ministry asked for the fiscal year, beginning next April 1, the sum of 680,000,000 yen ($190,000,000), which is 30 per cent more than the estimates of 1921-22, the largest previous estimates for the sea forces. In that year, Japan's fleet was extended to compete with the United States and Great Britain in capital ships, as the Washington Limitations Conference approached.

The navy building programme of the Roosevelt administration was believed, by Japanese and foreign authorities here, to be the primary motivating influence in Japan's projected increase in marine fighting power. The diplomatic isolation of Japan and friction with several Western powers as a result of the Manchurian trouble, and Japan's leaving the League of Nations, was given as a second potent reason.

SEES NAVAL PARITY
A third important motive was said to be the determination of the Japanese Government to go to the Naval Conference in 1935 with a second potent reason.

Falling Tree Cuts Machine in Two in Accident in Northern B.C.

MOTOR LOSES BATTLE WITH MOUNTAIN AIR

VANDERHOOF, Aug. 1 (CP).—The story of how the 300-horsepower engine of the seaplane City of Prince George lost a battle with a mountain downdraft and crashed without injury to four occupants, was told here today by Pilot W. R. McCluskey.

The machine was cut in two by a falling tree. "We bounced off, I saw a mountain and two prospectors, Gordon McLennan and Hugh McMillan, took off from McConnell Lake on July 23. "A mile down the valley," said McCluskey, "we struck a very strong downdraft. McConnell Lake and McConnell Creek are in a canyon whose rim rises almost perpendicular for 1,000 feet. A mile back the mountains are 5,000 feet high.

"Despite the fact I had the motor wide open, I was gradually forced into the tree tops. Three times I got a little lift and had hopes of making it, then I struck a tree which took off one pontoon.

Bank Commission Hearings to Open Early Next Week

OTTAWA, Aug. 1 (CP).—The first public hearing of the Royal Commission which will investigate the Canadian banking legislation and all matters pertaining to currency and credits, will be held Tuesday next, in Ottawa, according to present plans.

Advices to the Government here are that the two experts, Lord Macmillan, who will be chairman, and Sir Charles Addis, will arrive at Quebec on Thursday.

STRIKERS IN HOT FIGHTS

Pistols, Gas and Various Missiles Bring Heavy Casualty List

(Associated Press)
Picket lines in coal, silk and milk strikes in the Eastern United States were punctured with pistol shots, tear gas and brickbats yesterday.

In Pennsylvania's soft coal area, a striker was killed by bullets fired from an automobile that plunged through the picket lines about the H. F. Frick Coke Company. Deputy sheriffs set off a tear gas barrage to force the pickets.

More than a score were wounded in this and other clashes in the coal fields, where 30,000 miners are striking for recognition of the United Mine Workers.

HURL GAS BOMBS
At Boonville, N.Y., forty state troopers, hurling gas bombs and wielding riot sticks, routed 400 milk producers who sought to blockade the highways and prevent milk trucks from entering the town.

Five men were knocked unconscious. The troopers wore steel helmets and gas masks. The farmers carried axes, poles and clubs.

MANY ARRESTED
In Philadelphia silk workers' strike, 150 picketers about a mill were charged by police after throwing stones and milk bottles at non-striking employees. Windows in the mill were broken and automobiles parked nearby were damaged. Police arrested thirty-five persons after the clash.

Six Bus Drivers Shot in Havana

HAVANA, Aug. 1 (AP).—Six striking omnibus drivers were shot in a disturbance at Aguila and Neptuno Streets, in uptown Havana, late today. Four of them were reported in a serious condition.

First reports said the strikers were shot by drivers of private automobiles, whose machines were being overturned.

Two Children Go On Walking Tour

NORTH BAY, Ont., Aug. 1 (CP).—Homer Blomstone, twelve, and Arthur Little, fourteen, wards of the North Bay Children's Aid Society, were back in the home tonight after having made a walking tour of the district since Friday morning. The boys were found at Field, forty miles northwest of here, by provincial police.

RELIEVING RAIN FAILS TO FALL
Three Deaths From Heat in New York—Cool on Pacific Coast

NEW YORK, Aug. 1 (AP).—The weather man's promise of relieving rain failed to materialize in Eastern United States tonight and torrid temperatures held their grip on a sweltering populace.

In New York City, the peak was three degrees under the Monday century mark, but the humidity was more oppressive. Three deaths were attributed to the abnormal heat. The forecast held out hope for rain tomorrow.

Over the Atlantic northern seaboard the sun seared. Across the North Bay Children's Aid Society, a baby died from the heat. In Philadelphia, a 97 broke all records for August 1. The nation's capital reported a 98, and in Boston the mercury climbed to 99.

Showers were scattered over the Southwest and on the Pacific Coast cool temperatures prevailed. In North Dakota and Minnesota, Spring-like readings averaged between 65 and 80.

Altogether, Rockies showers spent cartridge shells and armaments scattered through the city, there is no cause for alarm.

THIRTY CIVIL GUARDS DEAD OR INJURED IN ARSENAL EXPLOSION

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Aug. 2 (AP).—Thirty civil guards were unofficially reported dead or wounded today, as a result of an explosion in the Camp de Marte Arsenal. The major blast occurred late last night, while inhabitants of Managua were attending the traditional regional fiesta in Santo Domingo Plaza.

Houses rocked as though in an earthquake, and citizens were thrown into a state of extreme excitement. Minor blasts continued until 12:10 a.m. today.

Spent cartridge shells and armaments scattered through the city, there is no cause for alarm.

British Columbia Election Machinery, Preparing for Poll Expected in October, Starts Churning Briskly—Forty-Seven Seats in Eighteenth Legislature, on Different Boundaries

BRITISH Columbia's Seventeenth Legislature was dissolved by proclamation at 4 p.m., yesterday, by Hon. J. W. Fordham Johnson, Lieutenant-Governor, acting on the advice of Premier Tolmie and his Ministers. No date was officially announced for the ensuing general Provincial election, but this is fully expected about the middle of October. Automatically, the 1932 Redistribution Act came into effect, cutting representation in the House by one seat to forty-seven, changing most ridings, and adding a new seat in the Peace River district.

After announcing briefly that the existing Legislature had been dissolved, Premier Tolmie left on the night boat for Vancouver, on a two-day tour of Fraser Valley areas. Before leaving, the Premier declined to discuss election plans.

HAD STORMY LIFE
So passes into history the Seventeenth Legislature, which, born in an era of peak prosperity, lived to see three years of the most gruelling depression known in the last one hundred years, and faced many problems of unusual magnitude.

A string of formal orders followed the proclamation of dissolution, which ended the tenure of sitting members in the Legislature who had been returned in the general election of July 18, 1928, and who took their seats at the session on January 22, 1929, at the first of five consecutive sessions. Dated from the return of the writ on September 1, 1928, and the prior assumption by the ministry.

NEW MACHINERY
One order signed yesterday canceled all appointments of registrars and deputy registrars, and made new appointments to cover the electoral districts on their new basis of forty-seven seats in the House, within varied boundaries. Many officials were reappointed forthwith, the change being necessary by reason of the new alignment of electoral districts.

MAY BE FIRST TO PAY PRICE
Two Years for Possession of Gun Probable Addition to Sentence

VANCOUVER, Aug. 1 (CP).—Possibility that the recent amendment to the Criminal Code which requires additional sentence of two years in all cases where a gun has been used, will be operative first in Vancouver against a woman, was forecast in county court today following the conviction of Mrs. Teresa Zarelli, East Hastings Street.

Mrs. Zarelli was convicted by Judge Ellis of shooting at her husband, Noel Zarelli, in the entrance of the Regent Hotel, early on the morning of May 29, with intent to do grievous bodily harm.

She pleaded guilty to a second charge of having in her possession at the time of the shooting a loaded revolver.

AMENDMENT TO CODE
Judge Ellis called attention to the Criminal Code amendment, which required the imposition of two years in prison in addition to any other sentence which may be imposed for a crime in which a gun has been used.

Neither bench nor counsel was sure whether or not the amendment had been made effective by formal proclamation.

WILL SET GANDHI FREE ON PAROLE
Will Face Public Trial and Possible Two-Year Sentence if Order Violated

POONA, India, Aug. 1 (AP).—M. K. Gandhi, arrested early today with his wife and thirty-three followers, will be brought to Yeroda Prison here from Ahmedabad and subsequently will be released.

Members of the group were lodged in Sabarmati jail at Ahmedabad shortly before they planned to launch a new civil disobedience campaign for full Indian independence.

Gandhi will be released under an order prohibiting him from leaving this district or engaging in any activity in connection with the disobedience campaign. He will face a possible prison sentence of two years and a public trial if he violates the order. His followers, arrested as they prepared to march to the village Ras, in the Kaira district, to gain converts to the disobedience campaign, were also likely to be released soon on parole.

DEATH CALLS CHAS. ALLEN

Former Police Chief of Lady-smith Passes Suddenly—On Force Here

Friends in Victoria and throughout British Columbia generally will learn with deep regret of the death of Ladysmith, yesterday, of Charles Allen, for the past six years a member of the Provincial Police staff at the Ladysmith Road Mental Hospital, and for eighteen years prior to that, chief of police of Ladysmith.

While Mr. Allen had been ailing for several months, and he was granted sick leave, his sudden passing came as a great shock to his host of friends.

FAMED AS FRIEND
Known to hundreds of the friendly policeman, Charles Allen won for himself the high regard of all with whom he came in contact. Possessed of a pleasing personality, a broad understanding of human nature, and an innate kindness, he acted as counselor, friend and mentor to those in trouble, during his long tenure as Ladysmith's chief constable. He sought to amicably settle disputes rather than invoke the processes of the law, but when stern measures were needed he never hesitated to act.

Born in Yorkshire, England, sixty-three years ago, he moved as a youth to Colorado, where he was employed for a time in mining. Later, about forty years ago, he came to Vancouver Island where he worked as a miner in the Wellington collieries.

NOTED ATHLETE
Possessed of remarkable strength, and a powerful frame, he took a keen interest in athletics and gained more than local fame as a wrestler. When the Klondike excitement caused a stampede to the Yukon, he was one of those who left Nanaimo in company with the late Hon. William Sloan for the northern creeks. He rushed into the clings over the Chilcoot Pass, a journey that had claimed the lives of scores of adventurers.

After several years spent in the North, Charles Allen returned to Vancouver Island and again engaged in coal mining. When the mines at Wellington were closed he moved to Ladysmith and continued his occupation there.

In 1909 he was appointed chief of police of Ladysmith, and for eighteen years he held that office, until in 1927 the policing of the city was assumed by the Provincial Government. The Provincial Police officials continued him in service, and transferred him from Ladysmith to Victoria, where he was stationed at the Wilkinson Road institution.

TACTFUL OFFICER
He was in charge of the Ladysmith city police during the big strike of 1912-13, and it is still recalled by residents of the city that during that troublous time when the militia was called in to the colliery districts, he did his duty without offense to either faction. In fact, it is declared that had the whole duty of policing been assigned to him there would have been no trouble. In any event, his kindness, his diplomacy, his undoubted bravery when occasion demanded, and his infinite tact endeared him to all. It may be said of Charles Allen that he was a policeman for nearly a quarter of a century and died without a single enemy.

His wife, a charming woman, predeceased him by several years. He leaves to mourn his passing three daughters and three sons: Mrs. George H. Bowden, Victoria, and Misses Vera and Margaret Allen, Ladysmith; William, Seattle; Thomas, New Westminster, and Charles, Ladysmith. His aged mother, brother and several sisters, residing at Canon City, Colorado, and nine grandchildren also survive.

The funeral will be held at Ladysmith, tomorrow, at 2 p.m.

LIEUT. GOVERNOR ISSUES PROCLAMATION

polling divisions on the new basis; there being some 923 polling divisions, including those made necessary by a shift in population, and former divisions continued and ratified.

A further order instructed registrars to proceed with the transfer of names from the voters' list into their new divisions, by segregation of existing lists to comply with the new boundaries. This work, it was said, would be completed before the next court of revision, on August 21.

SEPARATING LISTS
Another order provided for the segregation of those from whom pending applications for registration have been received, into their proper polling division under the new arrangement.

While the Government was silent on the question, it was explained authoritatively that there is no statutory requirement compelling the fixing of the election date at the same time as the request for dissolution is made. It is a fact that some previous administrations have set their elections at the same time as dissolving the respective legislatures, but it is claimed that neither practice nor precedent commands it.

The Seventeenth Legislature would have automatically become non-existent on September 1 next, but a concrete order for dissolution held advisable on legal grounds, expressly terminating the period of the existing Legislature.

OCTOBER POLL LIKELY

While there was nothing in the Government announcement to indicate the date of election, there are several considerations which point to a poll in October. Names for admission to the voters' list must be posted thirty days in advance of the monthly courts of revision, and no election is possible until the close of such court. The next court of revision occurs on August 21, then September 18, and so on, falling on the third Monday of each month.

Government spokesmen have already pointed to an election called by the late Premier Oliver as late as December 1, with the clear inference that such postponement is not now contemplated. Premier Toole himself has twice referred to the campaign of two months' duration. Between these brackets, October stands out as the most probable choice, though the Government has not yet said so, and in some quarters it is said that the exact date remains yet to be agreed upon.

THREE WEEKS' DIFFERENCE
Political limits, however, would incline toward a meeting of the Legislature before the third week in October, and not later than the first few days in November. Nomination will take place three weeks before the election, and the poll will mark the beginning of the month.

As there will be no opportunity for redress on polling day, voters are reminded that unless their names are on the list on that day they will be without a ballot. British subjects of twenty-one years of age, six months resident in the Province, and one month in their locality, may register at the monthly revision courts.

IN OLD HOUSE
As constituted up to yesterday, the Seventeenth Legislature contained forty-eight seats, one made vacant through the death of the late Michael Manson, honored and veteran member for Mackenzie, included R. W. Alward, William Atkinson, J. H. Beatty, J. W. Berry, Dr. L. E. Borden, E. W. Bruhn, E. C. Carson, J. W. Corbett, C. F. Davie, K. C. Williams, Dick, James Fitzsimmons, Dr. J. J. Gillis, A. W. Gray, L. A. Hanna, Reginald Hayward, George Hoggie, Hon. Joshua Hinchliffe, Hon. S. L. Howe, Hon. J. W. Jones, H. F. Kergin, Thomas King, Dr. C. M. Kingston, T. H. Kirk, Col. Fred Lister, N. S. Lough, Jack Loutet, Capt. M. F. Macintosh, Hon. R. L. Maitland, K. C. Roderick Mackenzie, Dr. G. R. McNaughton, F. M. McPherson, A. M. Manson, K. C. W. A. McKenzie, J. R. Mitchell, T. D. Pattullo, G. S. W. R. Rutledge, J. H. Schofield, W. C. Shelly, Col. Nelson Spencer, Dr. W. H. Sutherland, Hon. S. F. Toole, H. D. Twigg, Thomas Uphill, G. A. Walker and Dr. H. C. Winch.

The late J. A. Buckham, former member for Columbia and Speaker under a former regime, was also a member of the house, until summoned by death a few years ago. Speakers of the passing assembly were Hon. J. W. Jones, now Minister of Finance, and Mr. Davie, until his resignation this year. Mr. Twigg was the Deputy Speaker.

HONORABLE ASSEMBLY
For all of its troubles, the Seventeenth Legislature ran its course without scandal or attack on the SUNSHINE Camp, Kallist Beach, Sassexon, yesterday, reopened its hospitable doors for the reception of the first 1933 party of guests, and for the next five weeks the cottages, community hall, playground and neighboring fields and beaches will be astir with happy children and mothers who compose one or other of the five holiday parties booked. The camp comprises eleven cottages and the main community hall, seen in the centre distance.

In a flotilla of twelve cars, provided by the voluntary transportation committee, from the Metropolitan Church and the Saanich nurses, fifteen mothers and twenty-seven children were driven down to camp, early yesterday afternoon.

On arrival they were welcomed by Reeve William Crouch, president of the Sunshine Camp committee, and immediately set about settling into their holiday homes. The children were wildly excited, and promptly began to explore the surrounding country. Less than ten minutes after arriving, some had already donned their bathing suits and were paddling in the warm sea.

The first sit-down meal was served at about 5:30 in the spaciety dining-hall, where a fire was lighted later in the evening in the great open fireplace. Four or five G.O.I.T. girls, who have gone down to the camp to wait on table and assist with the children, were on hand to relieve the mothers as much as possible so that they could enjoy the opportunity of respite from their household cares. Mrs. Freeman, who is to be camp mother this season, will arrive in camp today, and will be assisted by the camp treasurer, Fred Landsberg, 1008 Broadway, or Room 48, Arcade Building.

probability of a single member, while its dissolution and the hazards of a general election in these times may seem to many who have served the Province well, irrespective of political affiliations.

While the Government must assume responsibility, the Legislature passed budgets rising in its early years to nearly $30,000,000, and receding again in the last three years to $22,000,000 as at present, or less than the outlays of 1920-21. It witnessed Provincial revenues climb to the $28,000,000 mark, and recede by over millions voted for work and relief.

FEW RIDINGS UNCHANGED

The new composition of the House in the coming Eighteenth Legislature will be decided by the people. It will include forty-seven seats, in which boundaries of ridings in the following areas remain unchanged: Atlin, Cariboo, Esquimalt, Fernie, New Westminster, North Okanagan, North Vancouver, Prince Rupert, Saanich, South Okanagan and Victoria City.

Boundary changes take place in the following, with gains or losses in territory as set out in the Redistribution Act of 1932, now applicable: Alberni-Nanaimo, Burnaby, Chilliwack, Columbia, Revelstoke, Comox, Cowichan-Newcastle, Cranbrook, Delta, Dewdney, Fort George, looting fifty-five polling divisions to Peace River, Grand Forks-Greenland, The Islands, Kamloops, Kaslo-Bloccan, Lillooet, Mackenzie, Nelson-Creston, Omineca, Peace River (new seat), Rossland-Traill, Strathcona, Arm, Similkameen, Skeena, Vancouver-Burrard, Vancouver Centre, Vancouver East, Vancouver-Point Grey, and Yale.

Of the plural memberships, the four districts in Vancouver take nine seats, including three in Vancouver-Point Grey, and two in each of the other three sections. Victoria retains its four straight seats, unaltered. All other areas have one seat, though affected in the coming year by a massive change of boundaries in all but eleven ridings.

Storm Causes Much Damage In Montreal

NEW YORK, Aug. 1 (CP).—Dr. Barnum Brown, curator of fossil reptiles at the American Museum of Natural History, plans to leave for the Black Hills, today, to hunt dinosaurs by airplane. "I have found the airplane very helpful in spotting the places where the dinosaurs are to be found," he explained.

SQUABBLE CAUSE OF MANY DEATHS

Two Swimmers Fight at Coney Island—Crowding Spectators Fall Onto Bathhouse

NEW YORK, Aug. 1 (AP).—A fist fight between two swimmers at the edge of the outdoor pool in Steeplechase, Coney Island, today indirectly resulted in the injury of between thirty and forty persons, three seriously.

When the fight started hundreds rushed to the railing of the balcony overlooking the pool. As the enclosure became crowded, the rear railing gave way and fell fifteen feet to the top of bathhouse stairs. Nearly a hundred persons toppled over the edge.

Hundreds of thousands of persons, seeking relief from the city's intense heat, were on the island. A panic was averted by the quick action of police. Rescuers were called out to restore order.

HUGE WAREHOUSE BURNS

PARTY IS NOT NATIONAL NEED

Mackenzie King Says Liberals Include All Parties, Creeds and Interests

DEBEN, Sask., Aug. 1 (CP).—"You don't need a C.C.F. party to get representation for labor in Ottawa," Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King told an audience here tonight. "Many years ago the Liberal party established a department to look particularly after the interests of the working man. And now, in every government, there is seated a minister of labor."

An audience, largely French-speaking, heard the Liberal leader. He reminded his listeners Sir Wilfrid Laurier had stood always for a united Canada.

"That is one thing I do not like about these new parties which are growing up," he said. "They tend to divide Canada. A third party which represents a class or two classes won't last long, but it may do a lot of harm."

The new movement which was starting up, the C.C.F., was a movement in the interest of a certain class, Mr. King continued, but a party must include all classes. "You must remember Canada is a very large country, and if you build up class groups and class parties, you are going to create divisions."

The only kind of government which he entitled to the name of Co-operative Commonwealth was one which included all parties and creeds and interests, and that the Liberal party did, he said.

JAPAN PLANNING VAST NAVY AND ARMY EXPANSION

fleet in commission or, in construction, up to the limits of the London Treaty, upon which would be based the demand for naval parity with the United States and Great Britain.

It was authoritatively reported the recent estimate submitted by the Army Ministry calls for 500,000,000 yen ($156,800,000). This would insure that the present budget of 2,300,000,000 yen ($694,000,000), with a deficit of 1,000,000,000 yen ($280,000,000) will be exceeded. The current budget of the Empire is the largest ever voted.

The combined army and navy demands total 1,240,000,000 yen ($347,000,000), a figure 45 per cent larger than the current appropriation.

GIVEN PRECEDENCE
Whereas usually the other ministries present a determined resistance to any move for swelling army and navy appropriations, Finance Minister Koriyoko Takahashi has said the naval estimates will be given precedence, because portions of the construction programme has been postponed in previous years.

A white front by War Minister General Sadao Araki, and Naval Minister Admiral Mineo Osami, to combat trimming of their figures, has been announced.

The cost of one year's continuation of the programme consistently followed by the Naval Department since the London Conference, is represented by the 100,000,000 yen asked for construction in 1934-35.

The Japanese naval programme is designed to provide the entire tonnage authorized under the London Treaty, when that accord expires in 1936. The estimated expenditure between April 1, 1934, and March 31, 1937, is 670,000,000 yen ($187,600,000).

NEW SHIPS PLANNED
For these three years it is proposed the construction programme includes two 8,500-ton six-inch gun cruisers, two 10,000-ton aircraft carriers, fourteen destroyers of 1,400 tons, six submarines, and one 5,000-ton mine layer. There also would be thirty-two auxiliary ships in non-treaty categories.

The navy is planning also to increase its air squadron to thirty-nine, by addition of eight new units. There were seventeen air squadrons in 1931.

The sum of 75,000,000 yen ($21,000,000) is proposed for 1934-35, to modernize the battleships Nakato and Mutsu, and the aircraft carriers Kaga and Akagi, which are the largest and newest capital ships in the Japanese navy.

To ascertain the status and to allow defence counsel to apply to the Attorney-General for suspended sentence, His Honor remanded the accused in custody until September 12.

Mrs. Zarelli was the principal witness at today's trial. Evidence of her husband taken previously was ordered struck from the records because of doubt whether the husband was a competent witness against his wife.

SHOT THROUGH POCKET
Claiming that her husband had refused to support her, Mrs. Zarelli said she followed him the night prior to the shooting and saw him in a cafe with another woman. When Zarelli came out and started into a hotel nearby she said she attempted to follow him, but he closed the inner door against her. When he called to the clerk to get the police, Mrs. Zarelli said she fired a shot through her pocket. That was the only one of three shots fired that she remembered, but she declared she had no intention of hitting him.

Zarelli admitted that none of the shots had been aimed in a manner that could possibly injure him.

Armada Ready to Continue Flight

SHOAL HARBOR, Nfld., Aug. 1 (AP).—The departure of twenty-four Italian seaplanes on the 1,800-mile flight to Valentia Island, Ireland, was set for dawn tomorrow, a week after their arrival from Shetland, N.B.

The weather was favorable tonight, there was no wind, and the choppy seas of the past few days had given place to water smooth as glass. Indications pointed to excellent flying conditions during the next lap of the return to Italy from the United States.

Cobra Hits Out at Gordon Sinclair to Miss by Scant Inch

Roving Reporter Dodges Deadly Snake Which Disputes the Possession of Rest House Bathroom—Calmly Slays It With Cane

By GORDON SINCLAIR

MANDALAY—For the second time within a year the spectacular hood of a spitting cobra slashed out at me from the dark corner of an Indian bungalow tonight and missed by half the width of this column. This coiled killer, short, slim and vicious, would have been sure death if he'd hit, because he was twisted around a high towel rack and lunged straight for my neck. At that one fateful second I didn't know he was a cobra at all. Even though I saw him coiled there as I lifted the shirt I was using as a towel he came so hard and quick I thought it was a hornet lashing out at my eyes.

It had been a tough day in old Mandalay. Plenty tough. The first waddy was at flood as we swept around the muddy crescent from Asia's upper silences. I struggled ashore in mud to the knees. To the knees mind you! All around me bullocks were being tacked and thumped while hectic drivers tried to pull up tank loads before the rising river would sweep them down toward Rangoon.

This, mind you, is no side alley timber wharf. This was the main dock of a city famed in song and story; where ships come and go every day of the year. A taxi stood chugging on the side of a hill but there was no hope of moving that one. It was mired beyond mobility. I got another machine. It got me a quarter mile then expired and slowly sank in mud above the running boards.

Soon a girl came along and offered to carry my kit, so she loaded it on her head and I started, still mud to the knees, towards the end of the street car line, 200 yards deeper into the most disappointing

How States Stand on Dry Law Repeal

MORE than half of the number of states required to effect repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment have already cast their votes and they have all gone solidly wet. Even the "key" states in the "dry" South were swept into the moist column. Alabama, Tennessee and Arkansas, in the heart of the "bone dry" belt, are believed by Postmaster-General James A. Farley, political maestro of the Roosevelt regime, to have shown the way to their sister Southern states. The closest vote so far was in Tennessee. Oregon, long listed as "dry," territory, was the last to throw her great weight in favor of repeal. Oregon made the twentieth state to go "wet." Only thirty-six states are needed to "cinch" repeal. Thirteen other states have already set dates for electing delegates to repeal conventions. In the order in which these states will be heard from, they are: Texas, August 26; Washington, August 29; Maine, September 11; Minnesota and Maryland, September 12; Vermont, September 13; New Mexico and Idaho, September 15; Arizona, October 3; South Carolina, North Carolina, Ohio and Pennsylvania, November 7. If all these states follow the lead

"Cobra! No cobra has ever come here before, sahib. Cobra!"

At that moment he as certainly startled and I was certainly calm. He went to the door and exploded into Hindustani. Out of the shadows came a great shaggy bear of a man grinning from ear to ear. He carried a big red coolie club and out of respect to me, but with reckless indifference toward the snake, he took his shoes off at the door.

Then he with the club, and me with the whip, came advanced on the snake. He coiled back and lunged out. The coolie club missed but I caught him a regular daisy cut across the neck. The snake turned upside down and almost inside out. His white belly gleamed a second then oomph! That club snatched him to jellied pulp.

The big hairy gorilla, turned, grinned at my naked hide and vanished into the rain with the snake followed by a trickling trail of purple drops.

I went back to the sheetless bed, but did I sleep? I did not. Did I get the jitters? I sure did.

CULBERTSON on CONTRACT

THE DEFENSE SLIPS

In the recent American Whist League National championships held at Hanover, N.H., Mr. Louis H. Watson was the only player to make the defense slip a game contract on the hand below.

Mr. Watson, as the play developed, saw his one possible hope of making the contract and accordingly tried for it. The fact that more astute opponents might have found the winning defense does not detract in any way from the soundness of Mr. Watson's line of play.

1. North might conceivably be justified in bidding four hearts at this point. However, in view of the fact that his partner passed originally and the game was being scored on a part-score basis, he wanted to give South a chance to pass below game.

2. South, having more than a minimum two-heart bid, must contract for game after his partner's invitation for him to do so.

East has no desirable opening lead. For some reason or other, this particular player chose to open the trump rather than his fourth-best diamond. Mr. Watson won the trick with the king in his own hand, drew the other trump and immediately led his singleton diamond. West won the trick and immediately returned his other high diamond, which Mr. Watson trumped. The next lead was a low spade. East quite properly stayed off at this trick, and it was won with the queen in dummy. Declarer now led a trump to return to his own hand

TAX RECEIPTS STILL SOARING

City Collects Third of Levy—Victoria Bonds Are Strengthened

Equally as encouraging as the manner in which applications are being received for the city's over-the-counter 5.5 per cent bonds, is the way in which current taxes are being paid under the pre-payment scheme.

At close of business yesterday, a total equal to one-third of the entire levy had been collected. On Monday, no less than $30,000 was paid into the treasury in pre-payments, sending the collections to date up to $575,667 as compared with $529,193 for the same period last year, which included the highest year of collections during the history of the pre-payment system.

IMPROVE POSITION

Officials said they expected that the manner in which tax collections were coming in would certainly improve the city's position on the bond market, particularly as last year Victoria stood third from the top throughout all Canadian cities in the collection of taxes.

Yesterday, steps were taken to issue the debentures of the $275,000 refunding issue. Terms of the bonds are now being drafted and made ready to be sent to the printers.

SALE STARTS TODAY

Actual sale of the bonds, however, starts today, with officials receiving applications and payment over the treasury department counter.

It was pointed out that citizens need not wait until they have sufficient money to pay for a bond outright. An application may be made for a $100, $500 or $1,000 bond and a small deposit may be left. The bond may be paid for on the installment plan, just so long as final payment is made before the campaign ends.

POLICE MAGISTRATE IMPOSES FINES IN GAMBLING CHARGES

The charge of conducting a gambling house at 1711 Government Street, laid against Wong Sang, was disposed of yesterday, in the police court. After a number of adjournments following the laying of the information early in July, evidence was taken yesterday. The accused was found guilty and fined $25. Twelve others, all Chinese, who were found in the place, were fined $5 each.

The case arose out of a raid of the place on Sunday, July 2, when Sergeant Arthur Bishop and Constables John Blackstock, George Claydon, A. Nicol and Claude Belcher entered the place, which was not barred or locked, and carried off the equipment. This included quantities of dice, dominoes, blank Chinese lottery sheets, and also some sheets, marked. Four were playing with dominoes at the time the police entered.

ATTEMPTING TO ROUSE WOMAN IN LONG SLEEP

CHICAGO, Aug. 1 (AP)—Medical science today began another effort to rouse twenty-eight-year-old Patricia Maguire from the deep sleep in which she has been for almost eighteen months.

Her physician began treatments which consist of typhoid inoculations to produce a fever, which, it is hoped, will "burn out" the infection of sleeping sickness which has kept the girl in a coma since February, 1932.

The first permanent tooth to make its appearance in the mouth is the six-year molar.

IS INJURED AT 'KIDNIE PARTY'

Film Producer Refuses to Discuss Bruise Received at Party—Beaten and Kicked

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 1 (AP)—Hollywood, barely recovered from the effects of the Al Jolson-Walter Winchell "bout," was fuzzing today about a "kiddie party" at which John Considine, Jr., received a black eye and body bruises.

Considine, film producer, attended a party Saturday night at the Santa Monica home of a screen actress. The guests all arrived garbed in baby dresses.

Meagre reports said during the hilarity Considine was knocked down and kicked by one of the other "kiddies." Dr. Mortensen, attending him at a Santa Monica hospital, said one eye is discolored and several ribs bruised but none broken. Considine declined to be interviewed.

The programme will be as follows: "March," "Great Little Army" (Alford); overture, "Stradella" (Flolow); waltz, "Luna" (Lincke); selection, "Robin Hood" (De Koven); march, "His Majesty the King" (Loezy); selection, "H.M.S. Pinafore" (Sullivan); intermezzo, "H.M. Sloop" (Pletcher); selection, "Old Favorites" (King).

ISSUE RAISED BY C.C.F.

The Montreal Gazette says that the Canadian Commonwealth Federation policy "is definitely socialist, almost as definitely communistic, and is hopelessly irreconcilable with the social and economic principles under which British countries for generations have sustained their position in the vanguard of world progress." That is unquestionably a fair statement, one that could not be disputed by the staunchest supporters of the political movement in question. In fact there is within the ranks of that movement an element which makes no secret of the desire to emulate the regime of Russia and make a forced labor camp of the Dominion. That element is satisfied for the moment that the policies enunciated at the Regina Convention will constitute the thin end of the wedge. They have sowed the seeds of revolutionary purpose.

The camouflaged wordage of the Regina resolutions cannot hoodwink the people of Canada. If there is an issue to be joined in the launching of the Canadian Commonwealth Federation Party it is one in which the common sense of the people will fail to distinguish any particular difference in the theories advocated by Mr. J. S. Woodsworth and his followers as between Socialism and Communism. There is a considerable element in the C.C.F. which wants Bolshevik Government in toto. The exponents of that code never cease their worrying. They are boring from within the C.C.F., just as in the past the Socialists bored from within the Labor Party.

The C.C.F. is the product of unsettled times; the manifestation of how subtle political minds will seize upon opportunities of attempting to acquire control over their fellows. This, of course, will be strenuously denied by the leaders of the movement. They will affect righteous indignation at the imputation of such thoughts. The career of Mr. Woodsworth in Parliament is, however, a clear indication of how he has been casting about for many years to find a following which would enable him to put his theories into practice. He has capitalized in a political sense the years of depression. He has realized, with Shakespeare, that "men's judgments are a parcel of their fortunes." He has laid the blame for everything on the political, the economic and the social dispensations that exist, and hammered in the idea that Socialism, united with the rule of Communism, is the cure-all. Although such a new dispensation has not been the cure in any country, but, on the contrary, brought about ruinous experiments, Mr. Woodsworth is not dismayed. He is sincere in his desire for power, and no doubt sincere, too, in his belief in his panacea. For the people of Canada, however, the issue is, as The Montreal Gazette says, their view of a policy "that is hopelessly irreconcilable with the social and economic principles under which British countries have for generations maintained their position in the vanguard of world progress."

THE SILVER AGREEMENT

It would be a mistaken assumption to believe that the agreement, the only agreement reached at the World Economic Conference, will mean an increase in the output of silver. It will mean the maintenance of a more stable price, but possibly a restriction in the production. The agreeing countries are Canada, the United States, Mexico, Australia, India, China, Spain and Peru. There is to be a restriction of the sales of silver in the world for a period of four years. The contracting parties will absorb from the mining output the equivalent of what is needed to sustain sales at a fair price. The bullion thus purchased will be reserved for conversion into coin.

Silver has been definitely declining in value in recent years. In 1922 the Canadian output was 18,620,000 ounces, valued at $12,576,785. In 1930 the output of 26,000,000 ounces valued at $10,086,867. The value had fallen from 67 cents to 57 cents per ounce. During the past three years the output of silver in Canada has fallen, until last year it was only 18,000,000 ounces. The demonization of silver commenced after the Franco-Prussian War and has been proceeding steadily. It has probably depreciated about 50 per cent since that date (1873). The present proposal of the World Economic Conference is the withdrawal of some 35,000,000 ounces of silver from the market. This scheme must be rectified by the various governments concerned in the agreement. The success of the scheme rests on the ability of the silver-using countries to exercise their purchasing power.

CLERICAL INTERFERENCE

No class in the community can surpass ministers of the Gospel in public spirit. They are ever ready to help forward all good projects for the betterment of the educational, social and economic life of their fellow-citizens. Clergymen have usually enjoyed the benefit of a liberal education, which being interpreted means that the necessarily narrowing influence of a vocational or professional training has been balanced by a reasonably comprehensive view of the circle of general knowledge. The average of ministerial intelligence and scholarship is high. Among the heads of the several religious denominations in Canada there are a good many men of outstanding ability.

There are fields, however, in which the members of the clerical profession with all their scholarship, all their literary and historical and theological acquirements and acumen, are not especially competent. One of these fields is economics and another is politics. Not long ago a conference of one of the religious denominations passed a resolution condemning capitalism and advocating state control and management of banking, transportation and industry. The resolution was passed by a small majority. The gentlemen who compose church courts are no doubt bound to use their best powers in urging upon their people the duty of taking an intelligent and active interest in public affairs, but it may well be doubted whether they can serve any useful purpose in placing on their records and publishing a resolution upon a political issue which, if introduced in another assembly a year later, may be rejected owing to a change of personnel. In point of fact a church conference, as such, can hardly be said to express the views of the rank and file of people upon political matters. A resolution of the kind mentioned embodies merely the opinions of the persons who compose the conference at the moment.

If, according to its constitution, a church consists of its rulers and governors, if its lay communicants are mere disciples, adherents, and camp followers, the official body may consider it proper to enter upon a campaign of party politics on its own initiative, but such a course is attended by obvious difficulties and dangers. On the other hand, if the non-clerical portion of a church forms an integral part thereof, the churches attendant upon political action are obviously much greater. There are no doubt church members who approve of Mr. Woodsworth and his revolutionary policies, but those members who hold Conservative or Liberal political opinions can hardly be blamed for resenting the action of church officials in thus using the organization as an instrument of political propaganda.

Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, of New York, has been visiting England and has taken occasion to pay high tribute of gratitude to Britain for her understanding and sympathy with the Jewish problems. He said: "The attitude of English statesmen, English churchmen and leaders of English life, irrespective of party and church, has been exactly what one might have expected in consonance with the traditions of the English people. These traditions include love of what we Americans call fair play, abhorrence of racial prejudice and religious intolerance, and, above all, the will, in conformity with the law, to deal with every individual as an individual and with undeviating justice."

Senator Royal S. Copeland, who was chairman of the Senate Racketeering Inquiry, says the economic waste in the United States from racketeering and allied crimes is $10,000,000,000 to $15,000,000,000 a year. He suggests control of the evil. It would be far more to the purpose to banish it altogether. The prime duty of a government, and what used to be regarded as one of its two duties, is to put up an invincible barrier against evil-doing.

PREVENTING 1929

More than one trained observer of financial markets expressed apprehension weeks ago concerning the signs of mounting speculation on the stock exchange. Was the country preparing another tremendous boom to be followed by a cataclysmic crash like that of four years ago? It has often been said in sorrowful retrospect that if the right steps had been taken in 1928 to check the mania, the disaster of 1929 could have been prevented, or at least made less devastating. This time, at any rate, the danger signals have been given early. Whatever else may be said of the precipitous decline of the stock market during the past three days, whatever was its effective cause, the warning has been given and a severe corrective applied. In this sense, despite the heavy losses of individuals and companies, there is reason to agree with the opinion of many sound bankers and economists that the upset in the market was long overdue and will be "wholesome" in its longer consequences.—New York Times.

ACHIEVING A PROFIT

Let the bells ring out! Let there be music and singing and dancing in the street. Let bonfires be lighted on the highest hills! Let there be general rejoicing! Why all this excitement? Because a municipally-owned street railway system has produced a profit. True, the profit shown by the Calgary line is not large—$3.24 to be exact—but it is a profit, and that is something. And it is the first time since 1929. However, there seems to be a fly in the ointment. The dispatch telling of the blessed event says that the surplus was achieved "after allowing for the electric light department's contribution of $3,375."—Border Cities Star.

Note and Comment

By R. B. D.

Weep not that the world changes—did it weep.
A stable, chancelous course, 'twere cause to weep.
—Bryant.

The world has been told in tones of portentous gravity that it is in a state of revolution. That is no news. It is as old as the world itself. The world, in the political, social, economic and industrial aspects, has been in a state of revolution since the beginning of time and things, ever since the momentous minute when it was precipitated into illimitable space like a cathechumen wheel and given a kick by Cosmos to keep it spinning. To be strictly accurate, however, the world is not in a state of revolution. It is in a state of evolution, which is a very different thing.

The most powerful forces are at work in their operations. Evolution goes about its destined business without fuss or fury. Evolution normally accomplishes its objects by gradual and peaceful processes, but sometimes it is accompanied by acts of violence. When the political affairs of the normally peaceful people of Great Britain and of Canada were in a chaotic state there were revolutions; but after order had been established all the changes necessary in the political and social structure were accomplished by evolutionary processes.

But there are eminent authorities in Britain today who "view with alarm" the existing state of things, and predict that unless we watch our step there may be a revolution based upon force and violence, as there has been in Russia, in Italy, in Turkey and in Germany, and some of the master minds of the C.C.F. predict there may be "Canada, if necessary. All contemporary revolutions qualify their propaganda by stating that they prefer peaceful to violent measures. Two such eminent literary authorities as Mr. Winston Churchill and Sir Philip Gibbs are alarmed at the prospect of another European war on the ground that all the material being gathered for a general conflagration. They say that notwithstanding international peace pacts Germany is determined to recover her lost territories and colonies, and under Hitler she will not be content until she gets them either by acquiescence or by force.

But we do not have to go to Europe or any remote country to find a revolution. There is a revolution going on at the present time right at our borders. The people of the United States have sunk for the moment all the political principles preached to them by their forefathers and fathers, and have "started something" interesting which may end in something the consequences of which certainly cannot be predicted. The revolution in the United States is based upon the principles of the ethics usually associated with peace, and we have no doubt that whatever is accomplished will be accomplished by peaceful measures. It is true that General Johnson, who is the chief revolutionary director under the President, has warned any individual industrialist who dares to march out of step with the regiment that if he does not get into the line he may "get a sock on the nose," but that is probably merely a vernacular figure of speech. It is also true that the President has declared that the nation has been organized for the purpose of forcing prices up, that organizations in control of businesses and industries have taken the President at his word and raised prices up, and that the minute prices went up the President wanted the inflationists that they must not raise prices too high up. Thus the fact will be apparent that the job of organizing and conducting a national revolution must be a job of considerable delicacy. There is a line to be drawn and a balance to be adjusted. There are the producers on one side of the scale and the consumers on the other, and in the middle the salaried people and the wage-earners. Then if foreign products should flow into the country under the aegis of higher prices than ever were known before, the balance might be entirely thrown out of adjustment. But such a situation is going to be met by currency manipulation and tariff adjustments. As the boy with the apple said to his chum whose mouth was "watering" in anticipation, "there ain't going to be no core." When the United States political revolution is crowned with an economic revolution, there ain't going to be no foreign competition. The eminent Professor Moley, who when in London was denied by his master, has declared the United States is economically independent of all the world and more than sufficient unto herself. If the individual American has lost his independence and his initiative has been transferred to people in the mass, what is a trifling thing like that compared with the glorious privilege of national independence?

It is said that onlookers see most of the game. A great game is being played, the greatest game since the war game in which nearly all nations were players, and we in Canada are the closest and the most interested onlookers. It is a contest between the forces of an organized state and the insurgents of depression. There is a great stake on the result, and Canada has a greater interest in that result than that of a mere onlooker and well-wisher.

RAIN IS NEEDED ACROSS CANADA

Crops Suffering From Lack of Moisture in Most Parts of Dominion

OTTAWA, Aug. 1 (CP).—A general need of rain exists from one end of Canada to the other, it was reported today in the crop survey compiled by the Dominion bureau of statistics. It indicated below-average prospects for most sections of the country.

In the Maritime Provinces crop conditions are generally fair, the survey showed, and the hay harvest has progressed favorably. Early crops are promising but rains are needed for late crops and pastures. Apples are sizing well and a larger crop than last year is indicated. In Quebec there is a general need of rain; the yield of hay is considerably below average.

Ontario is suffering from the most severely droughty conditions in many years. With the exception of Fall wheat and some oats and barley, all crops have been hard hit.

In the prairie provinces, although beneficial showers have been received in Manitoba, in Eastern and Northern Saskatchewan and in Northern and Western Alberta, also, meagre showers in the Southern districts of the three provinces, deterioration of the grain crops was undoubtedly high. The situation today is that the crops in Northern Manitoba and in Eastern-Saskatchewan and Northern Saskatchewan, are doing well, while in West-Central and Northern Alberta they have benefited by the recent rains.

SCARCITY OF RAIN
In the southern districts of the three prairie provinces, poor crops will be reaped on account of the severely droughty conditions. The situation there is becoming increasingly serious.

British Columbia also reports the need of rain in most parts of the province, although prospects are still fair for good crops. Tree fruits are clean and sizing well.

Civilization Doomed If Cycle Continues Noted Savant Says

Sir Flinders Petrie, British Archeologist, Sounds Warning — World Must Heed Lessons Taught by Six Civilizations Before This

By WILLIAM HILLMAN
(Central Press Canadian Writer)

LONDON.—Modern civilization is doomed. This "best of all possible worlds" is slated for the historic scrap heap just as surely as all previous civilizations found their way there.

Unless—and here Sir Flinders Petrie offers a new escape from disaster—the world takes heed of the warnings of the archeologists! Sir Flinders Petrie is one of the most noted archeologists and historians living. While priests and prophets, statesmen and economists are having a hard time these days justifying their value to society, Sir Flinders sees in the archeologists the saviors of mankind.

Are these people "who spend their lives poring over old manuscripts and digging up the remains of long-buried civilizations just dreamers or fanatics or are they doing something useful?" Sir Flinders asks.

"How can the knowledge of what happened in Palestine, Egypt, or Rome thousands of years ago, be of any use to modern Tom, Dick and Harry—and their families?"

"The answer to this is: If only the conclusions already arrived at through archeology were widely known, and acted upon, by politicians, financiers, and the man on the street, we should be able to avoid such calamities as those which are now confronting the world.

"My own discoveries and research led me, thirty years ago, to foretell almost in detail the suffering and troubles through which our civilization is passing today.

"These prophecies were thought mere prejudice, for at that time, with the world in the throes of a new era, to new heights of prosperity, any man would have been called a fool who could believe that anything could go wrong with this best of all worlds.

"Today, when we know differently, the public can look at the past with scared eyes.

HAVE BEEN SIX CIVILIZATIONS

"Research has proved the existence of at least half a dozen previous civilizations, and it is well to reflect that, in certain directions, some of them progressed thousands of years ago farther than we have.

"We must learn to avoid the mistakes that brought chaos and extinction to those peoples if our own civilization is to be saved.

"Civilizations succeed each other and go through their various stages of development in regular cycles of about 1,500 years.

"In all the six or so distinct cultures which we know and have studied the stages of culture and learning are the same. First is sculpture, followed by painting. Then comes a period when literature flourishes; this later followed by a musical age.

"The last stage, on the up-grade, is that at which science and the making of money are the chief preoccupations, and here culture attains its zenith.

"In all previous civilizations this period has been followed by a breakdown of the economic system and a period of revolution, terminating in the end of that particular phase and the gradual birth of a new civilization. And so it goes on.

"Each revolution involves not only upheaval from within, but usually invasion from outside. The invaders absorb some of the previous culture, impose their own, intermarry, and so on—and the next cycle has begun.

ROME RUINED BY UNIONS

"The indirect cause of the invasion of Rome by the Goths, and the subsequent collapse of the great Roman Empire, was its trade union system.

"First each trade and calling was organized, much on the lines of the trade unions in England now. A charter provided that each organization, or guild, should have complete control over one particular industry, supplying the proletariat at the expense of the well-to-do.

"The organization then imposed its condition on its workers—no man might leave his trade for any other calling, no man could take money out of his trade, which meant that he could not even marry outside his union and that his son must go into the same business or be disgraced.

"This went on until finally the worker was a complete slave to an all-powerful union.

"It was not surprising, therefore, that when the Goth came along and offered, in return for a piece of land, to rid society of such a burden, he was welcomed. This is just one of many lessons we may learn from the past.

"Egyptian history we can trace through every single state of eight periods, from about 6,000 B.C. to the present day; and that history is one of continual, almost regular, rise and fall, growth and decay, conquest and re-birth.

"The Assyrians were conquered by the Medians (or Medes), who were in turn absorbed by the Persians until, in the sixth century B.C. the entire Eastern World was united under what we now call the great Persian Empire.

DECAYS AND DIES

"Then the wave of conquests abated for a considerable period—long enough for the Persian Empire to become vast, wealthy (too wealthy), and flaccid. The time was ripe. Alexander, the martial leader of a younger, more virile civilization, bore down on Persia and overwhelmed it, just as any little young warrior would overcome an ageing, fat, and prosperous merchant.

"As for classical Greece itself, one may say that instrumental in its collapse was its belief in two great fallacies. One was that it was impossible to get the truth of things with words alone—that words had an absolute value, even when divorced from things and actions. (Incidentally, this is a grave mistake made by not a few people of today.)

"The other was that alcohol produces greater activity and ability, whereas it actually produces greater self-satisfaction in the individual, and, in the long run, feebler and shorter activity. It is very probable that had Alexander been temperate he would have lived another thirty or forty years and remodelled the world!

"Just as a man grows and develops to his prime, and then becomes enfeebled and dies, so it is with civilization. First there is the period of infancy and groping, next the growth and development of the arts and faculties, then mechanics—until the peak is attained.

"Civilization then slits back to enjoy the fruits of its labors until the abundance of wealth and lack of necessity for striving dries up its vitality, produces laziness and decay—ending in death."

INSANE HUSBAND KILLS HIS WIFE

Inflicts Mortal Wounds Before Neighbors Can Interfere to Save Her

VANCOUVER, Aug. 1 (CP).—Mrs. Steve Vedenich, No. 7 and Williams Road, Richmond, died in hospital here from injuries received when her husband, a forty-five-year-old Jugoslav, attacked her in the garden of their home today. She was cut about the face and head. Mrs. Vedenich's screams brought neighbors and police to the scene, but before they could intervene she had suffered injuries which resulted in her death several hours later. Vedenich was committed to Esquimalt Mental Hospital after examination by physicians late today.

Farmer Is Gored
To Death by Bull

CALGARY, Aug. 1 (CP).—William Whyte, farmer of the Ardenode district, about forty miles east of Calgary, was gored to death by a bull on his farm Sunday. His body was discovered by a son in the centre of a herd of milk cows where the enraged bull had killed the sixty-five-year-old farmer.

Canadians to See Mysterious Bali

BALI, that mysterious tropical island off the coast of Java, where, Eve would have been, acted a charming love story for the screen. But they had to be taught what a kiss was. They live in a land of temples. Although education is not a strong point, they can still count the few white people who have ever visited the island. They cannot count the number of dogs they own. They save the bodies of their dead until the last member of a family dies and cremate them all together. They worship bats and have 500,000 in one sacred cave. When priests send word that devils are abroad, every man, woman and child and dog must stay within doors to nothing will impede the demons' quick departure. They love to dance, and on March 9 and 10, 1934, will specially perform traditional dances for the Empress of Britain's world cruise passengers.

The pictures show a temple in Bebeling, a youthful humorist (top right) and a typical scene outside a native house where a cremation is about to be held.

FOURTEEN SHIPS IN CATTLE TRADE

Canadian Ranchers Eager to Ship to British Market—Keen Competition for Space

CALGARY, Aug. 1 (CP).—Fourteen vessels were now available for shipment of Canadian cattle to Great Britain, according to A. E. Fortington, of the Commercial Intelligence Service, Ottawa. He said Hon. H. H. Stevens, Minister of Trade and Commerce, had concentrated on the cattle shipping problem and had increased the number of ships from five to fourteen.

Mr. Fortington, studying Western Canada's cattle industry, said he had found ranchers eager to ship overseas. There was keen competition at present for ocean space.

Creation of a unified organization in the Prairie Provinces for export purposes was urged by Mr. Fortington as an important factor in the increase of cattle sales to Britain.

VANDALS DEFACED
ROYAL PORTRAITS

WINNIPEG, Aug. 1 (CP).—Oil portraits of King Edward and Queen Alexandra, in the Manitoba Legislative Buildings, badly defaced by vandals, are like new today. Artists, working under the direction of Gilbert Parfitt, Provincial architect, today completed cleaning and re-touching work on the paintings. The pictures were disfigured about a month ago, but it was not disclosed until today by Government officials, when the portraits were placed back on third-floor corridor walls.

PORTLAND HAS BAD FIRE

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 1 (AP).—Fire late today destroyed a warehouse and damaged twelve dwellings in the South Portland district near the waterfront. Virtually all the downtown fire-fighting apparatus responded to the three alarms.

The diner had paid his bill and was about to rise from the table. "By the way, sir?" said the anxious looking waiter, "do you believe history repeats itself?"

"I certainly do," said the customer. "I know of a number of cases."

"The waiter began to rub his hands together. "Well, sir," he said, "a gentleman who was in here yesterday gave me a half-a-crown tip."

"Then perhaps he'll be in again today," suggested the customer, reaching for his hat.

CAR CRASHES INTO BRIDGE

Walter Spearshott Narrowly Escapes Plunge Into Inner Harbor

Walter Spearshott, of the St. Princess Charlotte, narrowly escaped crashing through the Johnson Street Bridge railings into the Inner Harbor, late last night.

"According to the police report, Spearshott was driving his machine west on Johnson Street, when it collided with the iron rail on the north side. This impact caused the car to swerve to the south, collide with a girder, rip up over the sidewalk and into the railing.

The car was badly damaged and a section of the railing bent. No one was hurt.

MILK DEALERS GO TO COURT

Test Legality of President Roosevelt's Programme to Boost Prices

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—First court action to test the legality of President Roosevelt's programmes to boost farm prices and stabilize industry was taken today by an association of independent milk producers.

They asked the Federal Court to prevent the Government from prosecuting them for failure to live up to the recently adopted milk code calling for a minimum price of 10 cents a quart in the Chicago area.

After the dealers had expressed determination to continue selling milk on a cash-and-carry basis at 6 1/2 cents a quart, Judge James H. Wilkerson continued the matter until next Monday.

Pending a full hearing or transfer of the case to Washington, Judge Wilkerson promised there would be no prosecution of the independents.

President Plans War On Crooks

DAYTON, O., Aug. 1 (CP).—Many a child has been told that "soap won't kill you," but Perry Nicholson, twenty-seven, was specially perform traditional dances for the Empress of Britain's world cruise passengers.

The chief executive conferred with an adviser, Assistant Secretary of State Raymond Moley, who is also a crime authority, and scanned Federal statutes to be used in the racket-kidnap war. Apparently President Roosevelt will depend much on the enlarged Department of Justice and co-operation among the states to stamp out kidnapping. He expects to obtain additional Federal legislation to give the Government a "big stick" to club criminals.

United States Not Coining Metal Paid by Great Britain in June

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1 (AP).—The $10,000,000 in silver received by this Government, as part payment of the British war debt installment on June 15, will be held in bars by the Government, and silver certificates issued against it.

Dean Acheson, Acting Secretary of the Treasury, said today, he already had approved the form for the certificates.

No attempt will be made to coin any of the silver, as the United States already has a supply of silver dollars totaling more than $500,000,000.

The silver is held in the San Francisco mint.

ATTEND OPENING OF SCENIC ROAD

Herbert Anson and George I. Warren Represent City at Orcas Island Ceremony

Herbert Anson, president of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce, and George I. Warren, commissioner of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau were present at the official opening of the scenic road on Orcas Island, which leads to the summit of Mount Constitution.

Mr. Anson, on behalf of Victoria, expressed the delight which was felt at the completion of the road to the top of the mountain, which had been so much desired by the people of the island.

Mr. Anson said that Victoria was deeply interested in Orcas Island in common with other parts of the Georgian archipelago. Through the efforts of the Publicity Bureau, the ferry service had been established between Vancouver Island and these islands, which gave the opportunity of an exchange of travel between them.

OTHER SPEAKERS
 Included Mayor Kellogg, of Bellingham; David Whitcomb, former president of the Seattle Chamber of Commerce, and Mr. Moran.

The road to the top is finely constructed, wide, of easy grade and exceptionally scenic. There is a wide parking space at the top.

There was a large attendance from Seattle and other American cities. The ceremony took place before the gathering drove over the road to the summit. Mr. Moran entertained the visitors at his palatial home at Rosarua.

Canadians From States To Attend Convention

More Than 150 Delegates From Washington and Oregon Coming—G. A. Hooser, Zone Representative of Canadian Legion, Coming Today

With between seventy-five and 100 members of the Canadian Legion from Portland and a large number from Seattle, Spokane, Bellingham and Tacoma, arriving here tomorrow morning, the American branches of the Legion will be well represented at the convention which will open in Victoria tomorrow. C. A. Gill, secretary of the Victoria District Council, stated last night that it was probable that there would be almost 200 members of the Legion here from the states of Washington and Oregon, led by G. A. Hooser, zone representative for the Northwestern states. Mr. Hooser, who is a member of the Provincial Executive, will arrive from Seattle today.

The Portland delegates will include the famous sixteen-piece pipe band, said to be one of the finest on the continent, and composed entirely of Great War veterans and members of the Canadian Legion.

LEGION POPULAR
 Membership of the Canadian Legion in the United States has increased by leaps and bounds during the past few years, and according to Mr. Gill, there are now members of the legion in the United States more than there are non-members in Canada.

The Canadian Legion has attained an enviable place in the estimation of Americans, he said, and is doing fine work for Canadian veterans in the states.

One of the main matters to be settled at the convention will be the incorporation of the Legion branches throughout the North-western states under the British Command. Bellingham is already a member of the Command and when the convention ends on Saturday, it is probable that all other branches represented will also be joined under the leadership of the British Columbia executive.

MANY RESOLUTIONS
 During the three days of business and recreation, almost 100 resolutions will be brought before the convention, covering almost every form of activity in the various communities represented.

Among those to be discussed are resolutions dealing with veterans' allowances for ex-service men resident in the United States; Canadian monetary policies; international disarmament; training of the younger generation; the question of hospitalization for persons on relief; employment preference for veterans in the civil service; and relief camps.

Sea Water Observed By Oceanographer on Board Survey Vessel

Chief Hydrographer Provides Facilities for Official From Biological Station to Make Preliminary Tests in Vicinity of Nootka Sound

Eager to co-operate in every way possible with all departments of the public service, H. D. Parizeau, chief hydrographer in charge of surveys on the Pacific Coast for the Department of Marine, provided facilities aboard the survey ship William J. Stewart during the past month for a preliminary oceanographic survey of Nootka Sound. In charge of this work was J. P. Tully, biologist as well as oceanographer, who is identified with the Biological Station at Departure Bay.

In all, eighteen stations in and out of Nootka Sound were observed for temperature, density, phosphorus and acidity, as well as a number of other tests, while at a number of other stations off Nootka Light, where the ship was anchored during four periods of continuous slack water, exhaustive tests were made in the open sea.

As a result of the data obtained, Mr. Parizeau has recommended that an official of the biological survey be appointed permanently to the survey ship to carry on the work. Mr. Parizeau states that there is ample accommodation for an official and assistants aboard the Stewart, while laboratory space could be provided by minor alterations.

TOPOGRAPHY FINISHED

Telling about the work which the Stewart and the survey staff of the ship have been engaged in during July, Mr. Parizeau stated that at 8 o'clock on Saturday evening last, the topography of the entire Vancouver Island coast between Nootka and Race Rocks was completed.

During three weeks in July the ship was engaged in Nootka Sound, where good progress was made. The weather was not favorable for ship soundings, as the fog banks lay thick day after day about ten miles off shore. In the Sound, though, observations were carried on, the coastline was charted, the topography furthered, boat soundings made, shoals were examined, while

Sister Ship of Ill-Fated Army Plane

HERE is the type of giant twin-motored amphibian plane in which five army aviators lost their lives when a wing crumpled while flying about 1,000 feet above Oceanside, Calif., recently. The bomber, from Rockwell Field, exploded as it struck the ground. The falling plane barely missed a ranch house.

Total Grain Exports Set New Record for Vancouver

VANCOUVER, Aug. 1 (CP).—Official figures of the Vancouver Merchants' Exchange grain department show that during the season 1932-33, closed midnight, July 31, the grain export was 96,872,772 bushels, setting a new high record for the port. The previous best record was 92,829, when 95,407,519 bushels were shipped.

Last season, 1931-32, the export was 84,524,695 bushels, and ten years ago but a scant 16,000,000 bushels. The distribution of the wheat to world markets shows a great gain in United Kingdom-Continent consumption, and a falling off in the Orient, Canada's second largest market.

The details of the 1932-33 crop movement were: United Kingdom-Continent, 84,375,953; Orient, 11,323,696; Central and South America, 811,485; other countries, 361,638 a total of 96,872,772 bushels.

Steam Freighter Hanley Floated Without Damage

ASTORIA, Aug. 1 (AP).—The steam freighter, Hanley, which went aground off the Columbia River channel near Brookfield, Wash., in the night, was pulled off the sand four hours later and proceeded to Astoria for survey. The Hanley is operated by the Weyerhaeuser Timber Company. The Hanley was bound from Longview for New York with lumber cargo. Indications were, at the ship had bumped on sand, she was probably little, if any damaged. The coastguard cutter, Redwing, was dispatched from Astoria and the tug, Portland, of the Portland fleet, was called. The Hanley was built in San Francisco in 1920. She is 440 feet long and of 4,825 net tons.

ISLANDS' TRIP IS DELIGHTFUL

Week-End Excursions in Nearby Waters Offer Number of Attractions

Operating between Sidney and Vancouver, the Pacific Navigation Company's Ss. Cruiser, Capt. J. W. Cates, gives residents of the Lower Mainland, as well as those domiciled on the southern portion of Vancouver Island, an excellent opportunity of spending a week-end or more of lengthly holiday among the lovely Gulf Islands at a very little cost.

Coming from Vancouver, the Cruiser calls at Gossip Island, Mayne Island, Galiano Island, Kuper Island, Cowichan Bay, Metchosin, Beaver Point, Port Washington and Saturna Island. On Saturdays and Sundays, the smart little vessel makes special trips, leaving Sidney for Beaver Point, Bedwell Harbor, Saturna, Lyall Harbor, Port Hope and Montague Harbor.

Than these special trips out of Sidney, there is no bigger transportation value offered anywhere. They are not usually forgotten from a scenic standpoint, while the accommodation on the Cruiser will be found quite satisfactory.

These week-end cruises are conducted in conjunction with the Vancouver Island Coach Lines and make an outing combination hard to excel. Passengers can take their own lunches, buy them at stopover points, or get them at the hotel. These boat meals are cooked by a white woman and are very satisfactory when the appetite happens to be sharpened by the sea breezes.

In addition to Captain Cates, the personnel of the Cruiser includes George Cassidy, mate; H. McIlroy, engineer; Robert McIlroy, deck assistant, and Mrs. Wright, stewardess. "It has been the worst winter of the season I have spent in the North," Mr. Forslid stated. "The temperature was only 35 to 45 degrees below zero, but the storms were bad and the wolves were worse."

STEAMER CONNECTION MISSED BY SECONDS

MONTREAL, Aug. 1 (CP).—A race against time from Toronto to Montreal was lost by the space of a few seconds today. Two unidentified women missed a train from Toronto last night, determined to sail from here on the Duchess of Bedford today, they hopped a taxi, covering the distance of 350 miles in Montreal in eight and one-half hours.

They arrived at the dock just as the boat was pulling away. However, they will get the ship at Quebec tonight, since they immediately took a train for that city.

Wedding Is Celebrated In Morning

A quiet family wedding took place at St. John's Church at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, when Rev. Canon F. A. Chadwick united in marriage Eleanor Wilhelmina, daughter of Mrs. Sayer, of "Ashley," 1141 Empress Avenue, and of the late Mr. W. R. Sayer, formerly of the British Columbia Lands Department, and Edward Cockburn Marriott, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Maunsell, of Maclure Street.

Given in marriage by Mr. T. H. Drew, of Vancouver, the bride looked charming in a smartly tailored suit of dove grey, with a blue sash and a white bow at the waist. She wore a white tulle veil and carried a bouquet of white and pink flowers. The groom wore a dark suit and a white shirt with a red tie.

The church decorations were simple but effective, tall brass vases filled with white and pink flowers being used in the decoration of the altar.

Mr. G. Jennings Burnett was at the organ console, and played the wedding music, including the Mendelssohn "Wedding March" as the bride party left the church.

A small reception and wedding breakfast followed at the home of the bride's mother, Empress Avenue. Mrs. Sayer, who wore a graceful dress of grey crepe with black lace picture hat, being assisted in receiving by Mrs. Maunsell, the bridegroom's mother, in black satin and old lace. The bride's table was decorated with white and pink flowers.

PHILADELPHIA (UP).—Persons who long have entertained a desire to peer into the depths of the earth are being invited to the Natural History Museum here, where an exhibit—"A Section Through the Earth"—opened recently.

The display shows specimens of various mineral formations of the earth's different layers, among which is one piece of peridotite thrown up from a South African volcanic diamond-bearing "pipe."

A diagram on exhibit shows the outer, or granitic shell, which forms the twelve and a half-mile-thick "crust" of the earth, which in turn rests upon a second layer twenty-five miles thick.

The third, or peridotite shell, is 860 miles thick and is composed chiefly of iron and magnesium silicates, scientists explained. The South African "pipes" extend down to just within the shell. The specimen on display was obtained by the museum's Academy of Natural Sciences in the 1929-30 expedition to South Africa.

The fourth, or palaeozoic shell, is 876 miles thick, and consists of silicate and iron. It surrounds the core of the earth, which is 2,125 miles thick, and is composed of a nickel-iron alloy resembling meteorites.

Three Tournaments Scheduled to Start Within Three Weeks

City Amateur, Class "B" Championship and Junior Event Billed During Last Week of This Month—Uplands to Be Scene of Two Main Title Tournaments

Local golfers of all ages will be given an opportunity of displaying their form this month, when the annual Victoria city men's amateur golf championships open on Sunday, August 27. Classes "A" and "B" shotmakers will play on the Uplands links, while juniors will compete over the sporty Macaulay Point fairways. Walter W. Hall, Colwood, won the senior tourney last year on the Oak Bay course, while R. J. Humbertson, Gorge Vale, took "B" class. Kenny Lawson, sensational youngster from Uplands, was junior title-taker.

LIST OF RULES
Rules issued by the committee in charge include the following: Class "A" is open to all senior and junior amateur players of all recognized clubs in Victoria and immediate district who have a handicap of 18 or less. Class "B" regulations are the same, with the exception that contestants must have a handicap of over 18 strokes. Juniors have slightly different rules, their competition being open to boys under eighteen years, irrespective as to whether they belong to clubs or not. This tourney will take place on Thursday and Friday, August 17 and 18.

MEN'S QUALIFYING ROUND
In the men's events, the qualifying round will be held on August 27, with the first and second rounds on September 2. The third round and semi-finals will be played on September 3. The thirty-six-hole final will be held September 4. In "B" class the final round will be over the eighteen-hole route only. John Caven, secretary of the Uplands Club, will accept entries until August 25 for the men's competitions. Juniors' entries must be in the hands of the Macaulay Point secretary by August 15.

PLAY THIRTY-SIX HOLES
The youngsters will play eighteen holes the first day. The first thirty-two and ties for the second round the following day. The final best thirty-six holes gross score will be the champion.

Alan Taylor, brilliant young Oak Bay golfer, is one of the most serious threats. He was runner-up to Scotty Campbell in the Pacific Northwest tourney, held recently, in addition to making a strong bid for honors in the Canadian amateur meet. He was a player on the British Columbia squad that won the inter-provincial contest from Ontario at Vancouver several weeks ago.

OAK BAY ENTRANT
Jack Matson, southpaw and skipper of the British Columbia team, is expected to be another contender for honors from Oak Bay. A. S. G. Musgrave and Art Beasley are two low handicapped men from the same course who will probably enter. Uplands, the host links, will be represented by Bob Morrison, former city champion and twice member.

Next game, Tuesday, at 6:15 p.m. Royal Athletic Park: Sons of Canada vs. Rosebuds, to decide bye in play-offs.

Playing errorless ball behind Pitcher Kawaguchi, Taiyos Japanese ball nine defeated Eagles, 32-1, in the final league fixture in the Twilight loop, last night, at Royal Athletic Park. A fair crowd was given a fine show and went away well pleased. The Nippons scored the winning run in the last half of the ninth, when Okamoto crossed the plate. A full game was played in the record time of 1 hour and 31 minutes.

With the score tied up and one man down, Okamoto drew a pass from Holness. He went to second base after Holness balked. Kawauchi hit a fast ball and drove it to deep right field, scoring Okamoto from second to end the ball game. Holness allowed four scattered hits, but four costly errors on the part of his teammates robbed him of victory. Kawaguchi let Eagles have eight safeties, but excellent fielding kept the score down. The former whiffed eleven and the Japanese chucker six.

ENGLISHMEN PRAISED FOR TENNIS WIN

American Davis Cup Team Says Best Side Won—Have No Excuses

NEW YORK, Aug. 1 (AP).—Amid stout assertions the best team had won, the United States Davis Cup forces came home today, but there was considerable muttering here and there, and a hint or two of conflicting opinions as to the cause back of Britain's conquest in the inter-zone final round.

Facing a barrage of expert opinion, and the caustic French attitude the Americans were over-trained and over-confident for the crucial matches of the annual international trophy play, Bernon S. Prentice, captain of the squad, issued a blanket denial.

HAVE NO EXCUSES

"Of course, we are disappointed to return without the cup," he said in a prepared statement issued as the liner Olympic coasted up the bay from quarantine, and Ellsworth Vines and Wilmer Allison, singles aces, and John Van Ryn and George Lott, victorious doubles team, stood around and laced their questioners.

"We have no excuses to offer, only the highest praise for a great British team."

"We congratulate the new holders of the cup. A fine effort has been signally rewarded."

Security Prices Move Up Slightly At Wall Street

NEW YORK, Aug. 1 (AP)—A late rally moved stocks from the previous day's slumbers today, and the market retrieved part of yesterday's decline.

Prices merely drifted during most of the session, paying little heed to the rise in grain at Chicago and the larger boost at Winnipeg. Sales for the five hours of stock trading totaled only 1,787,000 shares, the smallest since April 18.

At the finish, repeat issues, rails and the farm belt group looked strongest, though net gains of 1 to 2 points were general. Larger traders were content to let things go along as managers of the nation's industry wrestled with the problems called up by the organized move for increased wages and a spread of employment.

The bond market was a trifle ragged today as both traders and investors displayed renewed caution in the matter of fresh commitments. Dullness was the rule throughout, sales totaling only $19,478,000 par value.

Most of the utilities and industrial followed a narrow range. Foreign obligations were irregular. Some Germans rallied a point or more. British 6 1/2's were heavily traded for a loss of 15-8.

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M.D.

HOT WEATHER HEATING
There are two mistakes many of us make during warm weather, the first is eating too much or at the wrong time, and the other is not eating enough.
Some time ago I quoted Dr. W. C. Alvarez, of the Mayo clinic, and it is worth remembering. "On trips to the mountains I have noticed that the man who comes into camp hungry from an exhausting climb and immediately sits down to a heavy meal, will occasionally suffer afterwards for several days with abdominal pain, gas pressure and diarrhoea." This is due to the fact that the tiredness dried up all the important ferments that digest the food and prevent decomposition or spoiling of the food when it is taken into the body.
Similarly in hot weather, the heat has tired or exhausted you temporarily, and when you eat there is no digestion takes place for some time, thus allowing the formation of gas with pain from gas pressure.
The thought, then, is that instead of sitting down at once to a meal, that you lie down quietly on the right side for a few minutes until you are somewhat rested and then eat some food. Your whole body will be rested and the digestive organs more able to pour out their juices, thus enabling you to digest your food properly instead of suffering pain which you naturally think is due to some bad or "tainted" food you have eaten.
What about not eating enough food in the hot weather? Should you not eat less in the hot weather, but really only a very little less.

The reason that you should eat almost as much food in the hot as in the cold weather is because the processes of the body—your muscles, your heart, your blood, your lungs—all have about the same amount of work to do all seasons of the year. A very small amount of food is needed extra during the cold weather to create heat.
In fact if you are outdoors more, do more work or take more exercise in the warm than in the cold weather, you may quite correctly eat more food during the warm weather.
Remember, then, don't eat when you are very hot or tired; rest a while first.
Remember also, that you need almost as much food in the warm as in the cold weather.

TO PUT ONE'S NOSE OUT OF JOINT
To supplant a person in another's favor, to spite or embarrass him, is to "put his nose out of joint." We are all familiar with the expression. Many of us use it casually, never stopping to take in the cruelty it suggests, not conscious of the quaintness of the words which make up the metaphor. We accept it as modern slang.
But the phrase is several hundred years old. It's first recorded use is found in "Farewell" by the old author, Riche. It dates 1581.
And then there was the colonel who committed suicide because he received a letter marked "Private."

DOMINION OFFERS ROMANTIC DRAMA

"I Loved You Wednesday" Stars
W. Baxter, E. Landi, V. Jory
and M. Jordan

In its transference from the medium of the stage to that of the screen, the Fox Film production of "I Loved You Wednesday," which opens today at the Dominion Theatre, proves a perfect screen entertainment. Its action, its scintillating dialogue and its pitifully charming characters are all brightly enhanced by the fluidity of the all-seeing camera.

The cast that Fox has gathered to portray the principal roles of the screen play, represents one of the happiest pieces of selection in recent months. Warner Baxter is powerful and suave as the engineer; Elissa Landi is beautiful and alluring as the dancer who wins his heart. As the faithless lover, Victor Jory gives weight to his promise of becoming one of the screen's shining lights, and Miriam Jordan is excellent in the role of his charming but neglected wife. Laura Hope Crews does wonders with a highly amusing part of masquerade to a great dancer.
